in CHRIST!

Black & White in CHRIST!

He had a dream and we gave it longevity

Watched as it changed shape depth and gravity

We marched with unyielding vitality

Crushing the ideals of Jim Crow like the walls of Jericho

Black & White in CHRIST!

MLK is our trumpet, lifeline hero

Alright they stopped sitting in the back seat

We no longer see black or white only

Or officers with dogs patrolling to stop change from unfolding like a eagles wings

We no longer hear why the caged bird sings

Black & White in CHRIST!

And as my country tis of thee fades into a distant echo and the dream deferred

Our current scenario:

Martin had a dream that life could be different shifted his mind from our past to his present

But his presence is left empty

We linger in an ocean of selfishness lacking empathy

We live separated like sections of a symphony

Black & White in CHRIST!

The cry of the unjust muted like controlled experiments in chemistry

And we think the past is just a memory

Not seeing how letting this be forgotten is like reoccurring misery

Stuck on a record player with a slow song called history

Black & White in CHRIST!

He lived to dream but I dream to be awake

In a reality where the different are still people

Where justice is blind and the scales hang equal

Where life love and color are all woven like crochet

So where is the tapestry of the likeness of you and me?

Black & White in CHRIST!

We are the best of all parts and the sum made whole

For we are the brides of Christ, the guides of this life

The peace makers the mold breakers and seekers of His love alone

Until we all go home at His side by His throne

Black & White in CHRIST!

Thinking is nothing without a voice

And a voice is quiet without action

And action is useless if done alone
